

OGM Mission News

We are finally doing some much needed remodeling, the kitchen is being closed off to allow for more manageable kitchen space, more dining room space, and more room in our Chapel.

We have accomplished three things; we can secure the kitchen when needed, the dining room can now seat 12 people and so can the living room. So in effect, we could have 25 people for dinner!

If you are interested in helping fund these and all the other renovations going on, you can donate at ;

Or of course, just drop by the mission!

Our chickens are in winter mode but are very happy and are very therapeutic for the residents. We have a new rooster named "Patches". He is part Americana, and part Banty. He has lots of colors and we hope to hatch some eggs in the spring to add some more color little flock.

Psalm 68:9 You, O God, sent a plentiful rain, Whereby You confirmed Your inheritance, when it was weary. 10 Your congregation dwelt in it; You, O God, provided from Your goodness for the poor.

Happy Thanksgiving

Thank you to everyone that helped with this years Thanksgiving Turkey give a way.

Every year the Outreach Gospel Mission gives Thanksgiving turkeys and all the fixings to the community in Curry County that otherwise would not have a Thanksgiving.

Our giveaway was held on the 22nd at the Safe Harbor Christian Fellowship here in Harbor.

Everyone pitched in, residents, volunteers and employees. It was a real joy to be able to share Thanksgiving with the community.

105 Turkeys and fixings were given, close to 500 people were given Thanksgiving this year.

We also had a nice quiet Thanksgiving dinner here at the mission with all the guys Thanksgiving day.

Thank you All!!!!

Psalm 118:1-4

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
his love endures forever.

Let Israel say:

“His love endures forever.”

“His love endures forever.”

Let those who fear the LORD say:

“His love endures forever.”
